Dear Commissioner:

I am writing to ask you to give local low-power FM radio station applicants precedence over translators that broadcast from distant locales and provide no local content whatsoever. As you know, as things stand, big cities like Chicago have been told there is no room for new LPFM radio stations. But at the same time, translators that use the same equipment and the same frequencies as LPFM have been granted licenses again and again. I hope you will reconsider this decision and make sure more local voices are heard in this time of rampant media consolidation.

*Let's end corporate control over radio

The airwaves are for everyone.
It is so, so important to maintain community, independent radio stations such as WLUV. College radio is the best

WHAT MAKES CITIES LIKE CHICAGO UNIQUE IS NOT JUST PHYSICAL - BUT LOCAL, CHARACTERISTIC, DEFINITE THINGS - LIKE WLWJ. IF WE DON'T NURTURE LOCAL MEDIA, WE MAY AS WELL DO AWAY WITH RADIO AND JUST FORCE EVERYONE ON TO THE WEB. IN A MARKET LIKE CHICAGO, EVEN "LOCAL" MEANS TENS OF THOUSANDS BEING SERVED.

Diversity in music opens peoples minds and exposes them to new experiences
These types of stations are the source of their inspiration and
